

2019 Bachelor of Applied Finance with the degree of Bachelor of Commerce – Professional Accounting

This double degree is designed to give you practical financial skills in banking, asset management, corporate finance, investments and portfolio risk management, and the ability to apply them in accounting focused careers. In this program you'll study current financial theories, financial mathematics and economics, as well as accounting principles, systems, management and reporting. The skills you'll gain in this double degree will prepare you to interpret and communicate complex financial information so you can help businesses make informed decisions within financial and capital markets.

The table below is a suggested first session for students beginning in Session 2, 2019. Please make your selection of units after reviewing the requirements of your award in the 2019 Handbook:
