

2017 MAJOR – Human Resources

(Qualifying Major for Bachelor of Commerce with the degree of Bachelor of Psychology (Honours))

This double degree will provide you with the knowledge and skills required to understand both individuals and groups, in addition to providing a set of comprehensive business skills and knowledge.

With its emphasis on understanding the processes and techniques that create and maintain high-performing, efficient and ethical organisations, the HR major gives you the work-ready skills and the technical knowledge needed to become an HR specialist. The major addresses aspects of day-to-day operations, strategic planning and decision-making. The arts-psychology component develops advanced knowledge and skills in core areas of psychology, as well as offering a range of elective units.

The table below is a suggested first session for students beginning in Session 2, 2017. Please make your selection of units after reviewing the requirements of your award in the 2017 Handbook:

- You must also meet the general requirements for the degree to which you will qualify.
- It may be possible to satisfy the requirements of your degree by taking a different selection of units in your first year from those suggested above.
- Consider what units you will want to study in second and third year. Prerequisite requirements for those units must be completed prior to enrolment in the higher unit.
- For a double major complete required units for both majors where possible in the first year. If considering a double major consult the criteria found at www.handbook.mq.edu.au/2017/Majors.
- All students must complete one People unit and one Planet unit. Criteria and available units can be viewed at www.handbook.mq.edu.au/2017/Units/Planet and www.handbook.mq.edu.au/2017/Units/People.
- You can receive specific program advice from the faculty at any stage in your degree by lodging a “Program Advice” enquiry via <http://ask.mq.edu.au>.
- Progression to honours is completed in the 5th year, subject to a specified level of high achievement. On completion of this degree, students are able to proceed to postgraduate training in psychology and towards registration as a psychologist.
