

2017 MAJOR – Finance

(Qualifying Major for Bachelor of Commerce)

Finance is the study of financial organisations, markets and instruments, their effect on the flow of funds within the economy the control of risk. In this major you will investigate corporate finance, investments and financial markets. You can complement your study in finance with units in accounting, economics, statistics, computing and others, to develop a deeper understanding of the discipline and its practical applications.

The table below is a suggested first session for students beginning in Session 2, 2017. Please make your selection of units after reviewing the requirements of your award in the 2017 Handbook:
