

2019 MAJOR – Media Studies

(Qualifying Major for Bachelor of Media with the degree of Bachelor of Laws)

A major in Media Studies offers students the opportunity to develop critical research and analytical skills focusing on a range of media and contexts. Students will select from a range of units that cover topics such as news and entertainment media, media representation, a range of internet-related issues (including privacy, file-sharing, social media), forensic media and network cultures. Students will also develop transferable skills in research, analysis and communication.

The table below is a suggested first session for students beginning in Session 2, 2019. Please make your selection of units after reviewing the requirements of your award in the 2019 Handbook:
